Pilz Webinar Series Updated for 2019

Pilz UK, Corby, 18.01.2019 - Pilz UK are delighted to announce that we'll be continuing our series of free Machinery Safety webinars throughout 2019 and registration for them is now open.

New for 2019, we've added some different webinars to the schedule including a look at Process Safety (EN 61511) using a case study, Distributed Safety Systems & Packaging Machine Safety.

For more information or to view the schedule and register for the webinars please visit pilz.co.uk and enter webcode 150739.

Pilz' free webinar series aims to give you the essential facts and updates on a range of key Machinery Safety topics without you having to leave the office.

Our presenters will cover the key facts in a short session and will offer participants the added opportunity to get instant support for specific questions.
