

With myPNOZ Configurator you determine the components for your safe and energy-efficient automation solution. Due to the open, modular concept individual components or even complete systems can be integrated seamlessly into your existing plant environment.