PILZ
THE SPIRIT OF SAFETY

▶ The Spirit of Safety in Digital Automation

With everything we do, we make the world a safer place. This is apparent in every idea, every product and every solution that's developed at Pilz. We always focus on our customers' needs and are passionate about supplying them with cutting-edge technology and the very best quality.

Today, Pilz is a global supplier of automation products, solutions and services with around 2 500 employees. The topics of digitisation and industrial security play an increasingly important role. Our digital business models offer our customers maximum benefits. Interlinked production and industrial plants must be protected against errors, whether caused intentionally or unintentionally. Pilz believes that only a holistic approach to safety and security can guarantee the comprehensive protection of humans and machinery.

For almost 75 years, Pilz has been providing inspiration with its innovative product developments and comprehensive services. Our end-to-end, individual concepts for safety, security and automation support our customers around the world in the implementation of their solutions. This is what we, as a family business steeped in tradition, stand for with our employees – each one an “Ambassador for Safety”.
